“ Donnie, so sorry to hear about your Mom's passing. Our hearts and prayers are with you and Donna. I have so many wonderful memories of our early years, trips with your and your grandparents and my grandmother, and of you guys taking me into your home when I started at Ohio State. I remember fondly all the baking your Mom did at Christmas time and all she taught me. All so much appreciated and thank you. Sorry we have all drifted apart and not kept in touch over the years.

*Love and God Bless You,
Bonnie and family*

“ Don - So sorry to hear that your Mom passed away. My thoughts and prayers are with you and Donna. I know she was a singer and musician. (My son Jason has really enjoyed her piano, which she had to give up during one of her moves.) I am sure she has joined a new chorus in heaven!

“ To the family of Doris: The ladies of the Columbus Damenchor send our sympathies. Doris is remembered still by many of our singers as a great member of the Alto section. May she now enjoy singing with the angels!

“ It is with great sorrow that I read of Doris's passing. I considered her my Mom. I regret not seeing her...but did not feel welcome. Ironically...she passed on my birthday. She was a charming character....who saved me. I taught for 38 years...a choice that immolated her. Donnie and Donna...my heartfelt wish is that you find a peace in knowing she lived a long and joyful life.

“ I am a member of All Saints Church in Worthington, and was a "friendly visitor" to Doris for the past three years. What a delightful woman Doris was! During each of our monthly visits she shared with me how important Donnie and Donna were to her, that she didn't know what she would do without Donnie, he "takes such good care of me". She shared, many times of course, the story of her wandering as a child during a visit to Washington D.C. with her parents, and ending up sitting on the lap of the Vice President. Every time she told that story to me she had such happiness in her eyes - and laughed through the memory as if it had been yesterday. And I listened to that story each visit as if I hadn't heard it before, because it brought her such delight in telling it. She told me about Ed, and how I would have loved him, and what a beautiful singer he was, and how they met, and about their many trips. She shared about her circle of friends who traveled with them with their motor homes, her dog, and her funny trip to California where they found themselves out in the middle of nowhere, and turned around. She had the most pleasant smile, and really enjoyed telling me about her life, and hearing about my travels. Because of her interest in music I once took her to a Capriccio concert in which my husband sings, and she was so delighted to be a part of that. She loved the "frosties" I brought her, and told me how she loved to be first on the bus on outings from Worthington Christian so she would get a good seat. Unfortunately Doris was out on one of these outings the last day I came to see her on her birthday, and I left her a frosted cookie and a birthday card on the chair in her room. In all the years I visited Doris she never knew my name, but she recognized my face, and always said "I've been thinking about you!" Most of all, I will remember Doris's lovely smile and her love for Donnie and all he did for her. I never had the pleasure of meeting you, Donnie, but I know you were a wonderful son to your mother, and she loved you with all her being. I will miss her.
