“ I was so sorry to read of your Mother's passing in the Dispatch this morning. I met your Mom when she worked at McArthur Savings & Loan Co. in the 1950s. She taught me the ropes when I went to work there in 1955. Never was there a kinder lady than she. Sincere condolences to you all.

“ Lianne and Diane, I am so sorry to hear about the passing of your mom. Although I have never met her, I know she had two wonderful daughters. I am sure she was so very grateful for all your care over the years. She was very lucky to have you to be such caring daughters.

My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Diane & Liane, I am so very saddened to learn of your mom's passing. She & Homer were a perfect couple and the most beautiful people I could have ever known. Both of you are examples of that perfection. The only bright note in this is that now they are together again. God Bless You.
