“ I was so sorry to hear of Doris's passing on Monday. We used to have lots of fun when she would come to my house and stay overnight during summer vacation. We did this many times through our school years. Irene Lipovsky Carver

“ We spent most of our early lives living together at OSSB, sharing happy times and bad times. We had a real blast on our Graduation Week-end when you came home with me after my Dad invited you to come home with us and share Graduation Dinner and then my sister and her boyfriend took us to Cedar Point to share the rest of the time with our class. Those are memories that will never be forgotten and can never be replaced. Doris always said what she had to say whether someone liked it or not. I will miss he happy times we shared and know we will meet again.

Over the years we talked a lot on the phone about subjects from family relationships, friends, our kids and theirs and the passing of school mates. I'll miss that because now you have joined those who have proceeded us. To her family, I wish you comfort and peace at her passing and beyond. Rest in peace, our friend. the Inskeeps
