“ Ann and her husband Ross were friends of my parents, Dean and Delana Close. They first met at the gallery my parents operated, Fifth Avenue Galleries. After the passing of both Ross and my father my mother and Ann remained close friends. We are sad that Ann has passed but so grateful that she shared her beautiful life with us. May you have a lovely journey, Ann.

“ To the Ekstrom, may the love of many comfort you, I am so sorry for your loss. During times of loss many come to your door. Some with dishes of food to share other a hug ,a touch or to hold a hand with tears of sorrow. This comfort reveals the love they share for the gift of life. We share our sorrow out of love. We are wonderfully created Gen1
