“ When I think of what a perfect lady should be I think of my grandmother...she was the definition of pure class, I will always remember her teaching me how to crochet and needlepoint. I loved those special times with my grandmother and I wish I could have played a round of golf with her, I am thankful she passed on her Manhattan recipe to my daddy and her love of the links! We will always remember her beautiful smile. Love, Angela

“ Grandmother Erskine was a sweet, kind, talented and soft spoken lady. I will never forget spending time with her and grandfather as a young girl. She taught me about sewing and cooking and family recipes like Pittsburgh BBQ! Every Christmas my siblings and I would be waiting and hoping that she would be sending us a bundle of dishcloths! I will be forever grateful to her for teaching my mother and I how to knit those special dishcloths so I can continue to carry on the family tradition!

Rest peacefully, Love, Cheryl
