HOLCOMBE Dorothy Lewis Holcombe of Columbus, 90, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, January 19 after an illness. She was predeceased last April by her loving husband of 68 years Forrest Wendell Holcombe, her parents Carl E. and Bessie M. Lewis, her son Little Tim, and her granddaughter Sara Marie Holcombe. Affectionately called "Dottie" by her legions of friends, she lived life to the fullest with the strongest possible loving devotion to her family and by sharing true warmth and understanding with everyone she met. She is survived by her three children, Forrest Douglas (Sharon) Holcombe of Vandalia, Thomas Lewis (Kathy) Holcombe of Worthington, and Margie Diane (Richard) Haley of Upper Arlington, who grew strong in her loving arms. She is also survived by eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Dorothy retired from Riverside Methodist Hospital in 1986, where she was known as a wonderful mentor to many and cherished friend to countless others. An accomplished quilter, crafter, and undoubtedly the best pie-maker ever, Dorothy used her creative talents to enrich the lives of those fortunate enough to have known her. She loved decorating for every holiday, putting in that extra heartfelt effort into making people smile.
