“ I knew Dorothy as a colleague with Midwest Ministry Development Service. While I was part of the counseling staff in the Chicago office, we had staff meetings occasionally and I filled in at the Columbus office for a counselor who was ill. Dorothy was truly a sweetheart! She was so helpful and accomodating as well as just a lot of fun -- she always seemed to be happy -- in a good mood. I know she worked with clients warmly and helpfully. I was blessed to have known and worked with her. Don Leo

“ It was a delight to work with “Dottie”, at the OSU ElectroScience Laboratory, from 1950 to 1969, where I was first a graduate student, then Professor and Director. She was always pleasant, cheerful, and efficient, a wonderful person as well as dependable secretary and librarian. I wish her the best in the great beyond.
