

Dr. Gary L. Warren

October 27, 1947 - February 1, 2022

Dr. Gary L. Warren passed away on February 1st, 2022 in Columbus, Ohio. Born in Dayton, he graduated from Ohio University and The Ohio State College of Dentistry.

He ran a practice in Columbus for many years before having to retire early due to illness. Gary loved dentistry and was fond of his patients and continued to visit the office even after he stopped practicing. He was an eternal optimist who always faced struggle with courage and a smile.

In addition to loving his work, Gary loved his friends. Up until two weeks before his passing, every week for the past 46 years, he shared dinner or lunch with a group of lifelong friends including his brother, John.

He was a lifelong Cleveland sports fan, remaining loyal to the Browns during all 32 starting quarterbacks since 1999. He continued to watch every Cavs game even after LeBron left - both times.

Gary loved spending time with his grandchildren and family. He is survived by his wife, Gail, their two sons, Matt (Amy) and Daniel (Kristen), three granddaughters, and his brother John (Cathy).

Family will receive friends on Sunday, February 6, 2022 from 1:00 PM to 3:00

“ *I was so sorry to hear of Gary's death. I was out of town and just read of his passing. In all the years I knew him, I was amazed at how he was always so incredibly positive despite his devastating neurologic condition. He was inspirational. “ I’m sorry to hear about Gary. I had such a crush on him when we moved to Delmar in 1960. I was in the 6th grade, and he was in the 8th. In the summer we used to play “ghost” at night in our back yard - me & the boys (Gary, John, Ron & Dave). I was the envy of all the girls. One night I fell in the hedgerow between our and our neighbor’s house. I was pretty much stuck and couldn’t get out. Gary came over to help me out, and one of my brothers said, “Just leave her there. She’ll get out.” 🙄 Thankfully, Gary didn’t listen to him and helped me out if the hedges. Then I was really head-over-heels for him. I will always remember Gary’s smile and gentle, kind spirit.
