The family would like share the following quote with you:

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day To laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Oh yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee God wanted me now; He set me free.

“ Jeanne started out as my sister Sally's caregiver, and quickly became family. She loved Sally fiercely, tenderly, and always with a sense of humor. I am forever grateful that she came into our lives, and I am so sad that she is gone.

“ Jeanne was a hoot! I never knew what she might say or do when she came into the office. It was such a pleasure working with her and helping her any way I could. I loved her smile, her quirky comments, her rolls of the eye when we told her to do something that she didn't plan to do. Locking her keys in the car and having a few choice words for the AAA. I could go on and on. Jeanne was a great patient and I am glad to have cared for her in a small way. My prayers to you, her family, that God will hold you during your times of sorrow.

Your laughter will always ring in my ears. I will never forget the many special times we shared. Peace be with your family today and the days to come as they learn to go on without you.

“ *My memories of Jeanne:
I met Jeanne almost the very moment I arrived in America. With me she was always funny and easy-going. When I came home from the hospital with Van she taught me how to change diapers and how to mix formula.
When I moved out on my own Jeanne came to be with me when I needed her. Jeanne always said “I love you” to me. She came with me to the potluck with my English class.
She did a great and difficult job taking care of Mom and Dad, and I’m always grateful for that.
And I will miss her.
