Rev. Elizabeth J. Brown - January 21, 2015 at 09:32 PM

Kit was in a class all his own. His generous spirit, love of God, and his pursuit of Biblical knowledge revealed a man committed to living a life of true meaning and purpose. I will always remember that deep signature voice reading the scriptures on Sunday morning. When Kit spoke, you FELT the words and somehow knew you were standing on holy ground. Our continued prayers go to Kaatji and family as they adjust to the transitions his passing will bring. Rev. Elizabeth J. Brown

“ Kit will be much missed by his Columbus Academy schoolmates from five decades ago (and counting) who grew to count on his good humor and good nature to light up any room we were lucky enough to share with him.

“ Kaatje and Family:

Please accept my condolences on Kit's passing. Although I was not close to Kit after my Jaycee career, I have good memories of "the good old days". Kit was an intelligent and charismatic leader who provided sound advice and guidance during our time as Officers of the Columbus Jaycees. He accomplished much and served well. Mary Lee and I will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.
