“ To the Hogle Family - Though I had lost track of your mother and dad over the years, I remember many very enjoyable evenings when my late husband and I square danced to your dad's calling and visited with your mother. (Wasn't he known for his expression - "The devil made me do it!!") They were a very special couple with warm friendly personalities. My thoughts and prayers will be with you during this sad time and may memories of both of them bring you comfort and peace. Gail (Blaskis) Miller

“ I offer my deepest sympathy Diane to you and your family for the loss of your Mother. Always hold your memories of your mom close to your heart and she will always be with you. God Bless You and Hold You Close In His Arms During The Difficult Days Ahead.

*Perhaps they are not
stars in the sky,
but rather openings
where our loved ones
shine down to let us
know they are happy.*
