“ Dear Grandma, All of you are in my thoughts and prayers. I loved the photo album of grandpa. You could really see in his face how happy and proud of all of us grandkids he was. I remember how excited he was to show me the pictures of the trips the two of you took. He lived a very fulfilling life and will be greatly missed. I love you so much. Love, Aleena

“ Dear Grandma, I'm going to really miss Grandpa. I loved when you both came to visit me at Bucknell and am so happy you were both able to see my wedding. I hope Jon and I have a loving, lifelong marriage just like you and Grandpa. The video of pictures of Grandpa is beautiful. I wish I could be at the funeral, but know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Bree

“ Dear Carolyn and Family: We will miss Ed's smiling face and warm greetings at church--but will look forward to a reunion someday with him in heaven. We remember with great joy the trip to Israel we took together--and that Ed was right there in the river when Pastor Jim re-baptized us. Remember, "The Lord is close to those who are brokenhearted." --Psalms
