“ My thoughts and prayers are with Eileen's family, she was a great neighbor, and a wealth of Columbus and the Knolls history and I enjoyed our many conversations!

“ Eileen would greet and speak with me in the balcony at North Broadway UMC services, and sometimes take the offering plate downstairs. She talked about her family sometimes.

“ My prayers are with the Ansley family. I have shared life's joys and sorrows with her son Dick for almost twenty years at Columbus State and I know his passion and drive are a direct reflection of his mother's guidance and faith. She is not gone, just gone on ahead.
