“ We have both known Clint for almost a lifetime. Living in Worthington, graduating from Worthington High School in the class of 1950 together we have many wonderful memories of Clint. He attended our wedding here in Scottsdale in 1996 and was a wonderful, true friend to both of us. We shall miss him dearly.

“ Dear Kitty and family, So sorry to learn of Clint's passing. Clint and I are Cathy Carskadon's godparents. During the years, I always enjoyed talking with Clint, especially about his writing. He was a good, generous man, and I know that he will be greatly missed. Bill and I send you our heartfelt sympathy. Kindest regards, Molly Coady Davis
