B.

“ Dear Carter Family, It pains my heart to read about the loss of someone so young. Although not personally knowing Ellie or your family, I send my condolences for your loss. Ellie appears to have been blessed to have such a loving family structure. During difficult periods in my life I have found the Bible’s promises to be of great strength and support. Isaiah 26:19 mentions that “Your dead ones will live. . . . They will rise up.” And the Bible at Psalms 37:29 also says: “The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.” You can have confidence in the resurrection (Acts 24:15). By drawing close to God in prayer the Bible promises that “he himself will sustain you.”—Psalm 55:22. It is my hope that you will find comfort from these few words during this difficult period.

“ I’m so sorry for your loss and I would like to extend my condolences to you and may “the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation” (2 Cor. 1:3, 4) give you comfort during this difficult time. Because Our Loving Heavenly Father Jehovah God knows how painful it is when we lose someone in death. In light of this, He purposes to end death, swallowing it up forever. (Isaiah 25:8) Please find comfort in the bible’s promises.
