“ It pains my heart to read about your loss. I send my condolences for your loss. During difficult periods in my life I have found the Bible's promises to be of great strength and support. Isaiah 26:19 mentions that "Your dead ones will live. . . . They will rise up." And the Bible at Psalms 37:29 also says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." You can have confidence in the resurrection (Acts 24:15).

“ Dear Larry and Patti, I have the most wonderful memory and image of your mom. I remember her as one of the sweetest, kind and loving perons I have ever known. I remember her especially well from our paper route days delivering 1,000s of Boosters between Henderson and Westwood Roads. But I also remember her at the bank, where she always greeted me in the warmest and kindest way. I can see her smiling face right now. She was a blessing to many, many people, and especially to you. I am sorry she is not with us, physically, any more, but I will always carry a very special place in my heart for her. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Allan Brown

“ Dear Larry and Patti, My heart grieves for you as you face the coming years without your mom. You were so good to her. Aunt Eleanor is surrounded by her family that has gone on before her. I know mom and Ray are loving their togetherness. Much laughter I can imagine. Be at peace knowing you were so loving to her. I will miss her. Be at peace

“We may speak about a place where there are no tears, no death, no fear, no night; but those are just the benefits of heaven. The beauty of heaven is seeing God.” Max Lucado Our sweet Eleanor is gazing upon that beauty and enjoying those benefits now. We will miss this amazing lady but we will be together soon sharing in that beauty which is our Lord Jesus Christ. Larry and Patty, grieve for your loss but not hers, for Eleanor is in perfect peace and has received the greatest of all rewards. We were so blessed to have had this time with her and she was so blessed to have had you as a son, Larry. Love you guy’s, Bob

“Dear Larry, Patty, and family Losing a Mother is one of the deepest sorrows a heart could know. Rest in the knowledge that Aunt Eleanor did so well because you took such good care of her. Shared memories keep her alive in our hearts. The image that will remain with me is that of a beautiful woman with white hair, striking blue eyes and sweet smile. We pray for God's peace and love to you all. Love, Gwen, John, Eric and Justin
