

Elie Dallal

December 24, 2009

Elie Yacoub Dallal, age 73, of Worthington, Ohio, passed away on Thursday, December 24, 2009 in Columbus, Ohio. He died peacefully surrounded by his family. He is preceded in death by his parents Yacoub and Edma Dallal and three brothers Sa'ad, Michael and Saliba Dallal, and his sister Malakeh Dallal. He was born on June 20, 1936 in Jaffa, Palestine. He came to the States as a student in 1961 and graduated as a mechanical engineer from the Indiana Technical Institute of Technology. He became a citizen of the United States in 1967. He was employed for over 25 years at American Electric Power in Columbus and Canton, Ohio. He is survived by his loving wife of 44 years, Patricia Susan Dallal; and four children, Edma (Christopher) Diller, Jack (Stephanie) Dallal, Mark (Ashley) Dallal, Julie (Brian) Palmer; and the highlight of his life, eight wonderful grandchildren, Elena Rae, Hayden Andrew, Celia Rose, Jacob Daniel, Sophia Catherine, Carma Elizabeth, Abbey Rose and Anna Claire. He is also survived by his sisters, Claire Dallal of Portland, Oregon, and Ramone Boustany and Nina Tahan of Beirut, Lebanon. Elie was truly a family man, enjoying and celebrating many milestones with his family and friends with good food and wine. He loved hunting, cooking, collecting recipes, camping, golf, music, and Westerns. He was a member of the Romeos (AEP Retirement group) and two local golf groups. A memorial service will be held at RUTHERFORD-CORBIN FUNERAL HOME, 515 High St, Worthington, Ohio, on Monday, December 28 at 11 a.m. Friends may call at the funeral home on Sunday, December 27, 2009 from 5-7 p.m. or immediately before the service at 10 a.m. on December 28. A private burial service will be held at a later date.
