“ Please accept my family's heartfelt condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. May you find comfort and peace in the fond memories of them, and The Almighty God's promise to restore those asleep in death, to perfect life on a paradise Earth, as written in The Bible for our comfort.

“ I have so many things I want to say... but I don't even know where to begin.... Letting you go was by far the hardest thing I have ever done. I have watched you suffer for so long and tried to protect you from all that I could. I Miss You so much!!!!!! I know Heaven Gained an Angel and Grandpa finally has you by his side.... I am so thankful for ALL you instilled in me.... for you having such an impact on my life..... and for God allowing me to share your last moments with ME. You left your Thumbprint on My Heart and I hope I can be half the Mother and Grandmother that you were!!!!!! I Love You So Much!!!!!!

“ I love you more than words could ever express, but I am comforted knowing that you knew how much you were/loved! I simply don't have the words to convey how much I miss you already!!!! I love you Grandma, a bushel and a peck, and a hug around the neck-a-neck-a-neck!!!!

“ Heaven has gained another angel. I could never have asked for a more perfect mother. She was the most loving mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. I feel so blessed to have had such a wonderful childhood. She was the neighborhood 'Kool-aid mom', and loved by all. I will love and miss her always, but will treasure all the memories.

Joyce i remember comming down to your parents house and just hanging out with you and you sister in the living room. Your mom would always ask if i wanted someting to snack on or something to drink. We couldnt have been more than 15 or 16 years old. She always treated me like family. Rest in peace.
