“ My sincere condolences to Elizabeth's family. We met and became very good friends when we both worked for Mid-Con in Columbus, Ohio in the late 1960's! We were both young mothers and loved talking about our children. She taught me how to make pizza (as I was from England I didn't have a clue). I visited with her and husband while they were vacationing at their condo in Florida as I was living in Sarasota, Fl. We kept in touch for many years until about a year or so ago.

She was a very loving mother and was very proud of her children. Her daughter, Rita, was very little when we met, maybe about three years. My love to the whole family and my sincere sympathy. God Bless your Soul, Elizabeth. With love and many memories. Love and God Bless, Rita Daines, Sarasota, Fl

“ To the Vaccari family and Danny. I am so sorry to hear about Liz. I have known Liz and Pasquale since I was little. I grew up on Republic when they lived on Loretta. Liz was the kindest person I have ever known. She always had a big smile whenever I saw her. She will be missed. My thoughts and prayers to the family.
