“ I realize this memory is a little late, so I apologize. I was fortunate enough to have known Mrs. Hoskins in a couple of different ways. The first was as a paperboy delivering to Thorne St. in Worthington, Ohio. I always tried to deliver on time. If my memory served me correctly, I seem to remember nice flowers out front. I was close friends with the Beerman's, Read's and Smullen's so I was always playing on Thorne St. as well. The other place I remember Mrs. Hoskins was in study hall at Worthington High School. It's funny, I can still here her taking roll call. For a month straight she would call out the name Mike Nelson and we would always tell her that he was in a different class. LOL! I remember her always being nice to me. Later on I would end up going to All Saints Lutheran as an adult in Worthington. I don't know if maybe she went to another service or maybe wasn't attending at that time. I just happened to be going through the 1986 yearbook and saw her name which brought back some fond memories. May you R. I. P.
