“ Sending comfort, and love to Beth's family. I worked for Beth in the late 70's! She was the best boss ever! Always a big smile, and kind words. I do believe, her faith, along with Don's, will bring them together in heaven, with our Heavenly Father.....God Bless....Leslie Smith

“ My deepest sympathies on Beth's death. My very first meeting with her was an after-church luncheon that my friend Fran Reichard assured me we would be welcome to attend. I was impressed with the ease at which Beth just welcomed us, adjusted her other guests to accommodate us, and went on to make everyone feel included and part of the gathering. I have often marveled at Beth's ability to expand her influence and accommodate the unexpected. She is in my heart...Janie Hurlbert
