“ I couldn't believe it when I heard she'd passed away. I knew her for a short time, but saw that she had a tremendously warm heart. She only wanted to understand what she could have done wrong to cause such strife in her life. Well, the truth is Ellen, it wasn't you. You couldn't control your situation any more than you could control your time to pass. We will miss you and hope that you have finally found peace. Goodbye dear friend.

“ Dear Chad, Our thoughts and prayers were with you when Tim died so suddenly last year. Our prayer now is for God's healing and peace in your heart knowing that Ellen is safely home in God's loving arms. Your dad was Steve's Best Man in our wedding almost 35 years ago. When we moved to Bellefontaine 4 yrs. later, we discovered your mom and dad were our neighbors on Eastern Ave. Your mom and I kept in touch over the years. Picking up our apples and cider at the farm was always a treat. Tim always had a 'new' apple for me to taste and asked what I thought. No matter how busy he was at that moment, he always took the time to chat. He kept up with what was happening in our lives and always let us know how you were. Your mom and I also had many long conversations in recent years. In fact, she came to the house several weeks ago. She must have been at the door knocking, but by the time I finally heard her and got to the front door, she was walking down the street and crossing to where you used to live. It was cold out, her head was covered and she couldn't hear me. I am so sorry that I missed that opportunity to talk to her again. Chad, your mom and dad are still very close to you....they live in your heart and memories. Recall the good times and just the happy memories. I pray that God will strengthen and encourage you through this difficult time. May His Peace and Grace fill your heart. Steve and JoAnne

“ We lived beside Ellen for several years she dropped in now and then to talk .She was a hard working lady! I wish I could have spent more time with Ellen,as she was a good person but with out a lot of heart aches. I am sure she is resting in peace in Jesus arms now as last time we talked it expressed it and I know all her hurts and heart aches are gone. She will be missed. Norma and Calvin

“ Ellen is finally at peace...the peace that she has deserved for so many years. May the peace and healing of God and the freshness of the Holy Spirit rest in the hearts of Ellen's family members and friends at this very difficult time. My heart is at peace knowing that the Lord has her safely now with him. She has been my friend since school days and will always be in my heart. No more worries my dear Ellen. Love and hugs, Carol
