

Elsabe M. Lindberg

October 5, 2009

Elsabe Margaret Lindberg, of Worthington, Ohio, peacefully joined our Lord on October 5, 2009 after a battle with heart disease. All who knew and loved her can celebrate her life at a Memorial Service to be held on Tuesday, October 13, at 3:00 p.m. at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, 5475 Brand Rd., Dublin, Ohio. Born in Frazee, Minnesota on September 16, 1919 to John and Meta Jess, Elsabe was an excellent student who loved visiting the family farms and sharing stories with her siblings and many cousins. She grew up in Fargo, North Dakota, surrounded by the love of her parents, her sisters, Dorothy and Betty, and her brother John. After having World War II interrupt their romance, Elsabe married Curtis Newman Lindberg on June 22, 1947. In 1948, the couple moved to Columbus, Ohio to start a new life, and became ardent Ohio State Buckeyes fans. Elsabe was a member of OSU Mother's Club and attended events until recently. She served as a volunteer at Riverside Hospital for many years. Elsabe and Curt happily raised four children and celebrated marriages, graduations, plays, sporting events, and other milestones with their family over their 62 years together. They sang together in church choirs, read devotions each night, and enjoyed summers at their lake cottage in Minnesota. Elsabe is survived by her devoted husband, Curt; her brother John Jess and his wife, Bette; children and their spouses, Craig and Sally Lindberg, Susan and Samuel Novell, Cheri and Jim Schack and Mark Lindberg; her grandchildren, Natalie and Eric Schulz, Matt Lindberg, Dan Lindberg, Kelly Schack, Megan and Kyle Findley, and Bridget Schack; and her great-grandchildren Andrew, Annabelle, Lydia and Joseph Schulz. When she celebrated her 90th birthday last month with her children and grandchildren, she expressed her greatest joy in life was being a Mom. Weeping may remain for a night, but rejoicing comes in the morning. Psalm 30:5

“ My sincer condolences on your loss. I am reminded of the words in the Bible at Psalm 90:10 “In themselves the days of our years are seventy years; And if because of special mightiness they are eighty years, Yet their insistence is on trouble and hurtful things; For it must quickly pass by, and away we fly.” Although I didn't know Elsabe I know she must have truly been a very special person. Our thoughts are with you at this time of your loss of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And cause such pain that can be most difficult to bear. The Bible Can Bring Comfort when we lose a loved one. While you are grieving, maybe some of these scriptures will comfort you. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4. Acts 17:31. Psalm 119:50, 52, 76. “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life.”—John 5:28, 29. The Bible holds out a truly comforting hope, the promise of life under very different conditions, under peaceful, righteous conditions. And at that time humans will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and they will never have to die again. The Wiley family sends our sincere condolences on your loss. C. Wiley
