“ *Dear Teresa, Andrew, Katie, John, and Janice: I was a classmate of Eric's at Stillwater High School. The period during which our paths crossed was much too brief, but I have great memories of Eric in class, at concerts, and on camping trips. He was fun, caring, and more level-headed than the rest of us at that age, and he was a wonderful friend. Having given such good memories to me and countless others as a friend during high school, I can only imagine what an impact he has had on your lives as husband, father, son, and brother.
