“ Last time I was in Columbus- I met brad for dinner and beers and we ended up at Martino's. We had a good drink and a good laugh and Eric ended up driving us home. I've known the man since I was 13- and we have always shared good conversation and laughs through the years. The Sealock's house was always open door policy to friends and family- I can't think of a more inviting and loving family in Worthington. Eric was the king of the castle and he will be sorely missed. I will miss catching up on the good old days with him and his infectious smile. The man is a legend- and that will never change. Eric was a cancer survivor of more than 10 years if i'm not mistaken- and it doesn't look like he took a single moment of that time for granted. He's catching up with his good buddy Mark Martin up in heaven now- and I hope that thought will bring some comfort. Love you Sealock's- I am so truly sorry for your loss- and I may be half way across the world now- but i feel some of that loss too... I light a candle in memory of Eric Sealock only because I can't buy all the Sealock's a round at Martino's now.

“ Erica always made me smile in high school. He had that slow grin and a sparkle to his eyes. My heart goes out to Patti and the family and all those that lived him. Praying for all of you.

“ As longtime neighbors of Eric and Patti, Brenda and especially me, are struggling to accept that we will not again see Eric and his positive personality. Despite Eric's health issues he was always smiling, friendly and positive and his priorities were being a giving and loving father and husband. Eric was always there if I needed a friend or assistance. We will miss Eric dearly and are here for support if his son's and wife need us.
