“ Hi Bob, I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I felt like I knew Eric through our exchanges at the Post Office and because he is the same age as my oldest son. I know how proud you were of him and I'm sure he knew too. I pray that the support of your family, friends and cherished memories will help get you through this difficult time. You're in my prayers. Mary

“ Family of Eric Clark Van Cleve Very sorry to read about the passing of your dead loved one Eric. Eric was so young with so much more to give in life. It seems that life is such a precious gift and yet so short-lived for the time we exist. The bible has such comforting thoughts at a time like this. The bible holds out a wonderful hope for all those in the grave. At John 11:25 Jesus said "I AM THE REURRECTION AND THE LIFE HE THAT EXERCIES FAITH IN EVEN THOUGH HE DIES WILL COME TO LIFE." Yes, God,s greatness is evident in the resurrection of his son. Moreover, that great act is a guarantee that the resurrection of others is possible. It should strengthen our faith that God can bring back to life the billions of dead people he holds within his perfect memory. (John 5-28,29) What a blessed reason to hope in God! God has given all mankind a wonderful gift of our memories . As you and your,s start to heal the memories of Eric will bring you great joy. I hope these few words have lighthened your grief strengthened your faith in our heavely father. (Psalms83-18) Sincerely M.L.Hurt

“ We will never forget you. Your kind and gentle spirit. Your sweet and mischievous smile. We will miss your presence and cherish your memory. You touched our hearts and brighten our lives. You cannot come any longer to us but because of the sacrifice of Christ, we will one day come to you. Until then, we will miss you.
