“ “Mom”, Being your daughter-in-law was a gift within itself to me. You were always very special to me and I'll never forget all of our talks we had on my way home from work all those years. I cherish every word you said and guidance you gave me and I will miss our talks greatly. Until we see each other again, love you “Mom”.

“ Dear Family. My heart is breaking I can't be with ya'll as u celebrate her life in memoriam as my health at this time won't let me travel and sad as she gave her all to me throughout my life. Ya'll were so loving and kind to me when my daddy went to heaven and so it hurts I can't give back what was given to me. And yet at peace knowing she is soaring on the wings of a dove! My cuz gave me a lifetime of heartwarming memories as a keepsake. I remember as a teen (Yikes 50 plus years ago:) I would come and stay at the Westerville home and we would drink tea, chat, she'd bake me Mayonaise Cake w Carmel icing(my fave)and she would color my hair and don't tell but she'd let me smoke..YES!! I met my first love at Aunt Audreys in Columbus where I would stay as well and also visiting ur Grandpa Zaayers(Bobby jus a young squirt). And still through current years she would still bake me nut bread and always in the box different teas to soothe me and send all the way to Iowa. I loved her honestly and completely. And she loved me unconditionally! Such a Classy Sassy Cuz who loved us all with her heart and soul. I will miss our chats on her birthday. I will miss writing to her. I will miss "Her". Across the miles from Iowa to each of your homes I wish you peace in mind .body. and soul and I wish you joy knowing she loved each of you with all her mighty and quirky soul :) I have two porcelain angels she sent me awhile back and cherished them then but now they have taken on a new meaning..she is that angel now ..too soon gone but at peace. Fly high my Cuz and I will see you again.

“ Loving, ornery, sweet firecracker is how I will always remember this amazing woman. She always told me about babysitting me when I was very little and what a wonderful child I was. Should add storyteller to my memories! Seriously, my heart is broken for her loving family. Her beautiful memories will help them all get through this painful time with peace and love. She will be very missed but her spirit will live on forever in those she loved.
