“ My granny was so sweet and cute. She was a fabulous baker and blanket maker. I can still see her face across the dining table during holidays and how petite she was in the big chair. I know she wasn't doing well in her final months but I pray she is experiencing peace and the love of God. I love you Granny Cox!

“ Bill, Sue and family. I'm so sorry for your loss, and I'm sorry I am unable to tell you in person. Ann will always be "Grandma Ann" to me. I will always remember knocking on her door and her giving me one of those assorted candies she always kept on her table in the living room. May she rest easy.

*Sincerely,
Corey*
