I too sewed with Esther at Riverside. Some of my most precious moments were when I would pick her up and we rode together to Riverside. She was always waiting for me at the doorway of her apartment building. I was on time but Esther was always early so I wouldn't need to wait. She was very thoughtful of others. I've missed seeing her at Good Shepherd. Our conversations were always about family and friends, sewing and church. She was a dear sweet friend. God bless you with your precious memories.
