“ I remember the first time I was in Ethel's room working and I have a habit because of the residents that we care for to talk louder then normal when she abruptly asked me why I was talking so loud that her hearing was just fine. After that even when I was down the hall I kept my voice to low key. We also talked about the vacations she had taken or the ones that I was thinking of and her tale about fishing and catching a marlin in Hawaii. I had many talks of this type and I think she was ready to go on vacation any time. She will be missed by me and our staff.
