“ It's really impossible to put into words how much this woman meant to me. She did such an amazing job of being all four of my grandparents in one. I am so thankful that my mom and dad asked her to move in with us a couple of years ago. We were already so close, but having her there with us everyday was the best thing that could have happened (although I wasn't sure how I would feel about it at the time). I would do anything to have her back down the hall where I could hear her playing Crossy Road on her iPhone 7, or on the porch watching her hummingbirds. She had the personality of someone my age within her 88 year old body, which made confiding in her one of my favorite things to do. I could always count on her to be on my side whenever there was a disagreement between me and my parents. She was our biggest cheerleader, developing an interest in everything we loved. She's undoubtedly looking down and cheering on the Cavs with us right now, hopefully with Grandpa Jess by her side after 23 long years. I love you so much, Grandma.

“ My mother was a very special person. She had a personality that would always make you happy and feel good, whatever was going around you. You could not be in the same room with Mom and not feel and share her happiness, her love and her joy for life. I can only hope to be half of the person my Mom was. I already miss her terribly. My only saving grace is that I know she is no longer suffering, she is happy again, and she is together again with my Dad, her husband. They both are looking down on us watching their family continue in life. I just hope we can come close to following their example.

*I Love You Mom!
