“ *Dear family and friends Graham Mays informed me today, that Stuart died completely unexpected on March 14th. I am more than shocked about these sad news. Since 1995 Stuart and I met on a regular basis when he was in Düsseldorf and we spent a lot of time together discussing the political situation in our world, the latest situation in real estate in the US and Germany as well as updated us on our family lifes. Sometimes we dreamed and planned to change the world. I enjoyed the time we spent together. I lost a good friend and feel really blessed that he called me „his friend“. His unexpected death shows us that we have to live every moment to the fullest and do not take our friends, families and all those little things for granted. I send my best wishes and sentiments to his family and friends – we will always remember Stuart and keep him in our thoughts and hearts.
