“ *Dear Betty and Family, We were so sorry to hear about Frank. He was a very special man and a wonderful neighbor. Matthew, Lindsay and Mandy always looked for him anytime we went in or out the back door. In fact, Mandy could here his car come in the driveway and knew there would be a treat waiting. Each time we visit Janice (at your old home in Lorain) we think of you. You would be happy to know that Janice is taking very good care of the house and just loves living there.
