“ It hurts to know how hard it is to lose such a dear Dad and Grandfather. We of the 1949 South High Class hate to know about it. You have our deepest sympathy, our numbers are dwindling but we were part of a great school system in our years and I'm sure your Dad benefited much from his interesting years in high school, the Air Force and Barrett and perhaps Lincoln Park. If my husband were still living I'm sure he could enlighten me to many of Fred's virtues. God Bless you all!
