

Freda Mae McClaskey

September 20, 1931 - February 15, 2023

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Freda M. McClaskey, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She passed away peacefully at 91 on Wednesday, February 15, 2023, at Kobacker House. Freda shared 64 wonderful years of marriage with the love of her life, Mac McClaskey, until his passing in 2011. Together they traveled the world, making unforgettable memories. From the beaches of Hawaii to the cobblestone streets of France, they shared a lifetime of adventures.

Freda's legacy lives on through her two children: Barb Savage (Jerry) and Lisa McClaskey; her 5 grandchildren: Kelley Akkashian (Eric), Ryan Beck (Heidi), Tony Beck (Lucia), Diane McClaskey and Ashley McClaskey; and her 7 great grandchildren: Aram Akkashian, Thomas, Sylvia and Flora Beck, as well as Brighton, Bram and Bodhi McClaskey.

We invite all those who knew and loved Freda to join her loving family in celebrating her remarkable life from 2-4 pm on Saturday March 11, 2023 at Rutherford Corbin Funeral Home, 515 North High Street, Worthington, OH.

“ Barb,

I wanted to say it was truly a pleasure knowing both of your parents. Growing up together and spending so much time with you I can tell you it was always so fun going to your house. There are so many great memories we've shared over the years and a lot of those include time with Freda and Mac. They are together now smiling down on their beautiful family. Love and hugs to you all.
