“ I worked with Fred at Nike Securities during the mid 90s. He was always in a good mood, super smart, told horrible jokes, and never took himself too seriously.

I loved eating with him at Mongolian Bbq and talking baseball. One time he snorkeled through our office complex's pond (swamp) while everyone watched through the windows, just to make them laugh and brighten our day. You will be missed Fred!

“ Fred and I worked together nearly two decades ago when we were both living in Cleveland and working at Progressive. He was an enlightened boss, a good mentor, wrote a recommendation for me when I applied to business school, and even through many years of changes and moves for us both all across the country, he remained a good friend. In recent years, I always found a reason to visit Columbus when I was in Ohio, and lately, was delighted to spend time with Fred on many of his recent trips to Boston. I was fortunate to know Fred and have him as my friend, but from his many stories, I know I was only one of the many people whose life was made much better from Fred's having been on this earth. Now, I am shocked and saddened by his untimely passing, and my deepest sympathies go out to his wife and children in this time of sorrow. Fred, I hope you rest in peace, and wherever you are, know just how many of your family and friends' lives were made better through your friendship, generosity and love.

“ Fred is the reason that my husband and I met. Fred would pick up Chuck and Wes, the 3 of them would drive to Royal Oak for youth group at Woodlawn. Woodlawn is where I met all 3 when I was 13, and we became friends really fast. I somehow knew that I would one day marry Chuck. Fred stood by Chuck's side as we took our vows and a few years later Chuck did the same for Fred. Our oldest daughter was the first baby that Fred held. I remember that he was scared to move as our baby slept on his chest and in his arms. Fred was a great friend and he'll be missed! Sending love and healing vibes to all of Fred's loved ones.

“ Such a huge loss. Fred was directly responsible for my wife and I meeting. He led me to church, and was a tremendous friend. His overtly corny jokes always made me smile. Michelle, you and your children, as well as the entire Khoury family, are in my prayers.
