“ I moved away from the Delaware County area around the beginning of my teenage years admittedly, most of my memories of Uncle Garry are from my childhood. He, like my other great Uncles and Great Aunts were constants in my life. I remember him preaching and singing in church, coaching baseball, like other guys in our family...he liked to be a bit ornery at times. He taught me how to play 52 Card Pick-up! I did Not like that game...lol. I'm glad he's at rest now though and I'd like to think he's hangin out with his parents and siblings who've passed. <3
