“ Butch was a coworker at the APA, and a classmate at law school. My clearest memory of him was when he talked about his wife, Sandy. as the rest of us would look and talk about women, Butch would tell us that nhe didn't look at them because he had met and married the love of his life. She was all he ever wanted. We were all shamed by his love and devotion to his wife and family.

“ Having recently had the pleasure of meeting Butch, as the new mailman in the neighborhood, I wish to express my condolences to his family. Though we only had a single conversation, we covered a lot and found that we had a common interest in music including Bob Dylan. I was looking forward to talking more music with Butch. May God bless and keep you always. May you stay forever young.

“ Sandy, Sean, Ryan and Troy... Your husband and father will be truly missed! He was an inspiration to me as I was deciding on purchasing my restaurant in New Albany. As you are surely aware, Butch always shared many words of wisdom and was someone you could easily admire, respect and look up to. I will truly miss him, but will get to see him again one day, as you will. God bless Butch and God bless you and your families.

“ Butch was such an AMAZING man. He was so instrumental in helping us become members of the Sunny Street family. If it weren't for him we may never have pursued this venture. His guidance, wisdom and, above all, compassion was so appreciated. We will truly miss him not only as a great mentor but as a cherished friend. Butch, we are so jealous that you are now in the presence of God. What an awesome place to be! There will be a day that we will all be together again. Sandy, Ryan, Sean and Troy...you had a remarkable father and husband. You should all feel very proud! Our lives are forever changed because of Butch.
