

Gary L Savage

May 25, 1939 - August 5, 2016

Gary L. Savage left this life surrounded by family and supported by love on Friday, August 5, 2016. Gary's life began on May 25, 1939 in Middletown, Ohio. Lebanon, Ohio was his playground under the watchful eyes of his mother, Geraldine, and the entire town. His interest in aviation began early with model airplanes. It grew, as evidenced by trophies and awards. His first plane ride was a gift for his 11th birthday and from this blossomed a 50 year career in aviation in Columbus, Ohio. After service in the US Air Force, Gary and his wife, Jan, settled in Worthington with their growing family. Sailing became the young family's recreation, led by Gary's enthusiasm. The "second home" of the Savage family was (and is) Leatherlips Yacht Club where they have been members since 1968, and where Gary served as Commodore in 1987. For 26 years the Savage Family Regatta has been held – in which 5 sons and grandchildren vie for bragging rights! Gary enjoyed racing his "big boat" on Wednesday nights with his friends at the Alum Creek Sailing Association. Gary's pride in his sons was immense and he loved to spend time with them, working on projects (boats, cars, home maintenance, etc.) or speculating about the future.

God speed, Gary! You have given us wings to soar with you!
