Gavin D. Schlotterbeck

Gavin D. Schlotterbeck, 17, of Powell passed away July 17, 2017. Gavin was born on May 9, 2000 in Columbus, Ohio to Troy and Stacy Schlotterbeck. A rising senior at Olentangy Liberty High School, Gavin was known for his infectious smile, sense of humor, and giving and inclusive spirit. He was thoughtful and kind and brought color and light to the world around him. He loved playing hockey from a young age and was looking forward to his senior season at OLHS. As an avid animal lover, he spent the past 5 summers as a Zoo Aide volunteer at the Columbus Zoo, and it was there he found his passion, planning to become a veterinarian. He loved going to Hilton Head every summer with all his cousins, playing games with his friends, and especially spending time with the girlfriend he adored, Hunter. Gavin was the best big brother Gage could have dreamed of. They shared a special bond and mutual admiration, spending hours together laughing and playing games. Gavin will be forever loved and missed by his parents, Troy and Stacy Schlotterbeck; brother, Gage Schlotterbeck; paternal grandparents, Larry and Jodell Schlotterbeck; maternal grandparents, Joe Bianchi, Marcia and Steve Bruce; aunts and uncles, Traci and Jason Radcliffe, Jeni and Brian Kenney, Theresa and Mike Henwood, and cousins, Alaina and Jacob Radcliffe, Zach, Kaitlyn, Taylor and Ryan Clark, and Joey and Skylar Henwood. Family will receive friends on Sunday, July 23, 2017 from 2:00 -4:00 PM and 7:00 -9:00 PM at ST. JOAN OF ARC CHURCH 10700 Liberty Road Powell, Ohio 43065, where a Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Monday, July 24, 2017 at 10:00 AM with Father Brian O'Connor as Celebrant. Interment will follow in Resurrection Cemetery. To send an online condolence, please visit www.rutherfordfuneralhomes.com

“ Dear Schlotterbeck family, my boys both knew Gavin from school. They didn't feel able to attend his funeral. We are so very sorry for your loss. My sons, Ben and Alex, just attended a sleepover a couple weeks ago with Gavin and said how funny he was. They played games all night. They both wish they would have stayed up all night enjoying his company rather than "wasting" that time on sleep. You should be so proud of this amazing young man. I wish I had had the opportunity to know him. Sherry Dollenmayer

“ Troy and Stacy, our hearts are saddened by Gavin's earthly departure. We will so lovingly miss his beautiful smile, loving heart and waves to us across the street. Heaven has gained another angel. "Fly High To Heaven Gavin" Continuous prayers that our Heavenly Father will sustain you and your family in comfort for the many days ahead. Sincerely, Bishop D. James and Shirl Washington

“ We send our deepest sympathy and earnest prayers to and for you, Troy and Stacy and Gage. We are friends of your parents, Troy, and know how much they loved Gavin and how they were "always there" for your children, cheering them on from the sidelines in whatever they were doing. Your mom, especially, frequently spoke so proudly of her love for Gavin. Callers found a greeting on your mom and dad's phone: You've reached the home of Gavin's, Gage's, Alaina's, and Jacob's grandparents. . .

Our hearts ache for you. May you feel God's warm embrace in the days ahead.

“ Gavin and I met in lunch last year and he was such a nice person. We worked together this year and I couldn't ask for a better coworker. He was such a nice funny person that was dedicated and cared deeply for everyone around him. He was such a great person to share a shift with and it hurts me to see him go. My love, support, and condolences are with your family

“ My heart goes out to Gavin's family for their terrible loss. I remember first meeting Gavin in our middle school play of As You Like It. Some lines resonate now, "All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players." Though he exited prematurely, he was a shining star, with bright eyes that people would always find a smile in. He made the most of his stage and touched so many lives.

Sending hugs to the Schlotterbecks and all those whose life was touched daily by this incredible young man.
