“ To the "Best Grandpa" a boy could ever have... You were such a Great Man! You were always there to help raise me and make things better. I love you so much for that. I miss you so much already but I just want to think about all the fun times and laughs we had together. You just Rest in Heaven now "Gramps", my Dad and I will carry-on your legacy of love and care of family forever... I love you ~ Your Grandson Michael.
