“ Dear Murphy family, Although not personally knowing Mr. Murphy or your family, I want to extend my condolences for your loss. It seems that many never take to time to show concern for others difficult times. It is my hope that you gain strength from the God of comfort that comforts us during our tribulation as mentioned at 2 Corinthians 1:3-4. He soon promises that this evil menace “death” will be no more (Revelation 21:3-4). I hope that your family gains comfort from one another and the promises that we can rely on in God’s Word.

“ My condolences on the loss of a truly great man. He was my next door neighbor growing up in Bethesda, MD, and always had a kind word of advice (telling me at 16: "Don't buy a black car - they're impossible to keep clean.")or an interesting story to tell. He was a very welcome addition to the many holiday dinners he was able to attend at our home, and we will remember him very fondly.

“ Charlie and everyone in the family: I was sad to hear about your Dad's passing. I enjoyed having the opportunity to meet and get to know Mr. Murphy when he moved to Trillium Place. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers and I pray that God will give you His peace and His comfort during this difficult time.
