

George E. Raudabaugh

March 27, 2013

George E. Raudabaugh, age 55, of Dublin, died Wednesday, March 27, 2013 at Kobacker House. Survived by wife of 34 years, Mary Beth; parents, G. Edward and Jeanette; brothers, Chris (Cheryl), Bill (Jill) Raudabaugh; sister, Lori (Paul) Havlovitz; seven nieces and nephews; other relatives and friends. After George graduated from St. Mary's Memorial High School he served in the Army as a Russian translator. George was a graduate of The Ohio State University. He was a dedicated Buckeyes football and basketball fan. He adored his orange kitty, Slyder. He enjoyed reading, playing on his computer, fine dining, (thank you Refectory), trips to Las Vegas and going on cruises. George was employed at Clear Saleing and thoroughly enjoyed his role as a computer programmer. Funeral Service 7 p.m. Monday, April 1, 2013 at RUTHERFORD-CORBIN FUNERAL HOME, 515 High Street, Worthington, where friends may call from 5 p.m. until service time. Contributions may be made to Kobacker House/HomeReach Hospice in George's memory. Condolences to www.rutherfordfuneralhome.com

“ Bill & Chris, my condolences to you on the death of your brother George. Although I didn't know George as well as I knew the two of you, I was in awe of and had the greatest respect for his skills as a programmer at IDI and was proud to have worked with someone of his caliber. As I read about his many interests and activities outside work, I can imagine how much he will be missed by you, his wife, and all his family and close friends. Regards, Mike Sz.

“ I am so sad to hear about George passing away at such a young age. I wish to convey my condolences to the entire Raudabaugh family. I will always have fond memories of George as an intelligent, hard-working, and dedicated software developer and someone I really enjoyed interacting with on a daily basis for many years when we worked together at IDI. May George rest in peace.
