

Georgia Parsenios

October 11, 1942 - May 29, 2021

Georgia Parsenios, age 78, passed away peacefully on May 28, following an extended illness. She was born on October 11, 1942 in Cumberland, MD, to the late George and Helen (Stoerakos) Parsenios. She graduated from Youngstown University with a Bachelor of Arts degree and attended Brooklyn College. She served as an elementary school substitute teacher for the Youngstown City Schools, substitute and full-time elementary teacher for the New York City Schools, and worked in sales after relocating to Columbus. She was an avid cook and loved international travel. A member of the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Cathedral, she is survived by her sister, Athena Jones, Columbus; brother Lewis Parsenios, Lenox, MA; nephews George Jones, Columbus; Nicholas Parsenios (Leslie), Lenox, MA; and Father George Parsenios (Maureen), Brookline, MA; and four grand nieces and nephews. Funeral service will be held on Monday, June 7, 2021, at 10 am at the RUTHERFORD-CORBIN FUNERAL HOME, 515 High Street in Worthington. Interment to follow at Union Cemetery. Condolences to www.rutherfordfuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Georgia Parsenios

January 28, 2023 at 10:24 AM