“ I will always hold the memories in my heart. Bill and his family always made me feel a part of the family. In many ways he was a surrogate father to me. I am so very glad we got to have a reunion lunch a few months ago. Rest in peace my dear man.

“ Bill was a kind, gentle soul, soft spoken and always had a smile for you. I've known him for as far back as I can remember. Our families are intertwined in many ways. I can't count the times Bill was there for me/us. I have many, many fond memories of spending time with Bill and Shirley when they came to visit. We'd play games, talk and laugh. He was a special man and will definitely be missed by many. My prayer is that God will wrap his loving arms around each of the family, give them strength and comfort to continue on without their very special loved one. Sending this to all the family with our love, Teresa and Chris.
