“ Unfortunately, I didn't have the opportunity to say goodbye to my mother-in-law. The fact that she lived 4000 miles from us didn't make things easy...

In the 24 years I've been her son in law, we never had a cross word. I admired her quite way to deal with stuff and I loved to hear her talk, for me having to learn the English language the way she expresses herself felt like a perfect achievement.

She was independent and a pleasure to have in the home on the too few occasions she made the trip.

Pardon my French, but for me she'll always stay "the best mother-in-law ever"...

“ Aunt Geraldine was a wonderful lady . I remember spending many holidays at her home. I enjoyed her cooking and wonderful slide shows of the many vacations she had taken with her family. I loved to hear her talk as she still had a bit of a Scottish accent from having lived in Scotland. I remember she was always a very kind, gentle and loving person and she will truly be missed. God Bless you Aunt Geraldine

“ Your loved one lived a long life. She had "special mightiness" according to (Psalms 90:10). We've been promised the hope of a resurrection whereby, you will have the opportunity to be reunited with "GERALDINE" again in the future. (John 11:35-44) May you look towards that hope. I'm sorry for your loss.
