“ Gerry,

I'm terribly sorry to hear about the loss of your son. I had Gerry twice in class at Liberty - as a freshman and as a junior. I always enjoyed his sense of humor, and he was a great kid - he always did whatever I asked. I still use a video clip he found for me that shows the differences between the size of planets and stars, and the kids always love it! I was fortunate to run into him at a football game this past fall, and gave him a big ole bear hug!

I can't imagine what you and your family are going through during this most difficult hour, but please know that my life is better for having the opportunity to know him.

Yours in faith,

“ I can't believe I will never see you again.....In my yard playing airsoft games, running through the woods.....at a campfire..... helping Ben and the other kids haul mulch.....cooking out with my family.....playing card games. I can't believe I'll never hear your contagious laugh over the Wii, fighting some battle with Jonathan. If I could turn back time and tell you that this battle in life is worth it. If I could have convinced you to stay.....I can't believe.....
You are gone, but not forgotten. Rest in Peace <3

“ Dear Gerry, If life was a dvr I would go back to that day and try to convince you to stay. I'm not mad at you, just confused. I'm sorry I could not see the pain you were in. I will always remember the Air Soft wars, laughing at how terrible Happy Tree Friends is, and I'd always bug you to play Cards Against Humanity. I wished you knew what you meant to so many people.
