

Gilbert R. Jacobi

March 13, 1924 - February 3, 2015

Gilbert Jacobi, 90, born in Electra, Texas, passed away at his home in Worthington, Ohio. He is survived by his siblings, Emma Dot, Elizabeth, Theresa, Rita, Hilma Ann, and Joseph; children James (Karen), Thomas (Zoraida) and Susan (Edward) Lau; by 8 grandchildren, Jessica, Elizabeth, James II, Jennifer, John and Christopher Jacobi, Bryan and Brendan Lau; and 2 great grandchildren, Charles and Henry Lau. He was preceded in death by his wife, Dolores, his father, Norbert, and his mother, Emma as well as his brothers, Ernest, Henry, and Norbert and sister Margaret.

Gilbert graduated from Electra High School and met the love of his life, Dolores, after moving to Detroit, Michigan in the mid 1940's. After marrying, he took a position as a tool-maker at Excello Corporation, where he worked for 25 years. After retirement, Gilbert moved to Plymouth, Michigan where he lived until relocating to Columbus in 2005 to be closer to family. Having served in the Navy during WWII, Gil was part of "The Greatest Generation." Working steadily until his late 80s, he used his skills to assist his family in every way possible. Above all, Gilbert's life was defined by his deep love for God and his devotion and generosity to his family.
