“ I came to know Glenn through my shared love of the Famous Jazz Orchestra. He and I both have been Monday night regulars. I will miss seeing him there and watching him direct from his seat! Larry Harris

“ I remember this gentleman, in the same chair, with his baton, directing with huge enthusiasm, as the band performed every selection. He certainly will be missed and that chair will always have his name on it.

“ I am a trombonist in FJO and am a charter member - have been with the band since we started at the Olentangy Inn around 1997. I have seen Glenn conducting the band from his seat many times. May he Rest In Peace.

“ Glenn was our most enthusiastic cheerleader at the FJO. He always let the Sax section know how we played as he passed by us at the end of the night. He had a big heart and love for the music. He will be missed!

“ I often sat next to Glenn on Mondays at the FJO. I could tell he was well-loved as a steady stream of people would stop to say hello, or squeeze his hand, or offer to grab a snack from the table in the back of the room. He liked chocolate I can tell you that. He was always so very proud of the band, declaring them “world class”. I could also tell he was quite intelligent by his descriptions of his career and life experiences. He’ll definitely be missed.

“ Glenda and Glen, I’m so sorry for your loss. Whenever I think about memories from our childhoods with your dad, I always laugh when remembering the day he took us out to Highbanks and dropped us in the woods to see if we could find our way out. He was definitely a character. You are in my thoughts. Please don’t hesitate to call if you need anything at all. My number is 740-815-2827. Love Sally Pemberton Phillips

“ Glenn was a Monday night fixture at the Clintonville Woman’s Club listening to and conducting the FJO. When in doubt, all we had to do was look over at Glenn to see where count 1 was. He’ll truly be missed.

I sat behind Glenn every Monday night at FJO. Made sure his chair was saved for him. Helped him get his favorite candy and pop. A favorite song if his in the band's book was "Back Home Again in Indiana". He was an avid fan of Purdue. We will truly miss Glenn. May God keep you and bless you.
