“ Grandma will be greatly missed. I find solace in the fact she is now with her family in heaven surrounded by her loving and dedicated husbands and her family who all passed before her. Although I deeply regret not being able to be there in person to say goodbye in her final days, I deeply appreciate that her children, her friends and loved ones were there to wish her goodbye and celebrate her life this past Wednesday, January 18th 2012. I will always remember our weekend trips to Columbus as a child to spend time with Grandma and to see our cousins and family in the Columbus area. We would all congregate at Grandma's, many of us kids sleeping on the floor for the weekend festivities. Weekends at Grandma Gloria's were a special time, a time for us to bond with her and Eddie and to hear stories about the past. Although the events and activities of every visit differed, one thing always remained the same; the feeling of genuine sorrow in the pit of my stomach every time we left. Our trips to see Grandma were after all a very special time for us to come closer together as a family, a special opportunity to catch up on the times apart that weekly telephone calls could never remedy. I truly believe my appreciation for family, my desire to make it home as much as I possibly can to see my loved ones, is a direct result of my appreciation for those wonderful weekends we spent visiting Grandma and family in Columbus as a child. Although those days are gone they will live on in a new way for those of us that remain as we tell the stories and to remember the life of our Grandma. Her memory will carry on through my voice, the voice of my cousins, the voice of my aunts and uncles and through her friends and family. Our children will grow up knowing who Grandma was and will know about her life and how much she was loved. We should all take comfort in knowing her memory will live on with and through all of us. You will be missed Grandma Gloria.

“ I really wish that I could be in Columbus to say a final goodbye to my favorite grandmother. She was an amazing woman.. tenacious, funny, stubborn, kind, and generous. Although I have many great memories of her in my childhood, the best time with her was when I was in college at Ohio State. I would visit her and Eddie periodically to catch up, do my laundry, and grab a bite to eat. We always had a great time, and I loved my visits. She had an impact on my personality that changed me to this day.. she taught me how to be whimsical, sentimental, sarcastic, and determined. I miss you grandma. And I love you. Rest well.

“ What I will always remember is the pirate smile, and the mischievous glint in her eyes when she was happy. We love you grandma. Rest well.

“ My grandmother, a kind peaceful soul, a face that always met me with love, and cared like no other. She was one of the strongest people I have even know, and always will be. In her time here, she taught me plenty of lesson, but the most important was that I always need to keep pushing forward, and that I can achieve anything that i put my mind to with hard work and diligence. May she rest in peace and may her soul bless all that it's touched.

“ My Grandma was a happy woman and she loved her family a lot. I remember the summer days when my brother and i would go to her house to go swimming and how fun she was. I will miss her a lot but i will always know that she is watching over me and i am happy to say that she was my grandmother. Grandma you were a lovely woman and you will be missed by many. Until we meet again, i love you.

“ I have so many fond memories of my Grandma Gloria. She was a loving wife, mother, and friend to so many. She loved her grandkids dearly, and she always made me feel so special for being the very 1st granddaughter. I was her Shany. We used to visit Grandma and Ed a few times every year. I so enjoyed the wonderful food and the great company. We shared a love for sweets – jelly beans, chocolates, etc. She swore they were for Ed, but I know she enjoyed them herself! She would always send Casey and I home with some special treats and a couple of bucks for a drive back to Louisville. It was the small gestures and the big wet kisses, this was Grandma’s way. I always enjoyed our visits to Grandmas because it was the gathering place for our family. It was a happy place where all the children and grandchildren could catch up and enjoy each other. Aunt Denise, Uncle Bill, Sean, Patrick, Mom, Dad, Casey, Uncle Lou, Brandon, Mandi, Peach, Uncle Jack & Aunt Millie – I have so many memories of each of you while spending time with Grandma and Ed. I will cherish these thoughts and moments always in my heart.
